The Story Behind DDFX Forex Trading System

It took us 4 years to find this best trading setup after using various free and paid version of Forex Trading System from few web and Forum.

Not satisfying with all FX trading system, we decided to modify, adapted, added and combine the indicators to suit our trading environment.

Finally, now you can see the latest version of DDFX, version 4.0. It can give an early signal and it has the ability to filter out some bad signal (if not all).

We do hope DDFX Forex Trading System can help you catch some good pips. Together we make hundreds of pips weekly and monthly.

Beware in Lower Time Frame...

We strongly suggest that you use higher timeframe when trading Forex AT LEAST AT 30 MIN TIME FRAME. There will be a lot of whipsaw when using a lower time frame like 5 min and 15 min.

Follow the main trend; if bullish wait for the long signal, if bear wait for the short signal.

Know Your Risk

When you do start trading with real money then you need to consider your risk very carefully.

As any good trader knows: The #1 rule of trading is capital preservation – once money is in your trading account it ceases to become money; it is now a tool.

There has been a lot written on risk, or money management as it is often called, but it's actually very simple.

If you have a solid trading method, and are making it work for you, then all you have to do is use a low-risk percentage per trade.

A good guide is 2 or 3 percent on any single trade; this is not conservative – it is typical.

Learn to Trade

I highly recommend that you trade on demo with this method before you subject your real cash to the risks of the market.

Like I have said previously, it will take a little time to get to grips with this method, but I guarantee it won't take as long you think before you really start getting a feel for it!

If you must trade with real money, and I have to admit that in my experience this works better for some traders, then use a small amount of capital initially.

You've invested in this system because you're taking your trading seriously, right? Well you must take your money seriously as well – respect it!

DDFX Indicators

This version 4.0 contains the following indicators:

1. DDFX Clock v4
2. DDFX Neuro Trade v4
3. DDFX BBStop v4
4. DDFX Major Trend v4
5. DDFX Sentiment v4
6. DDFX 6 Golden Line v4
7. Stratman MiniChart V12 – Free Indicator from FF (complementary) (please use template: DDFX_v4_minichart)
8. Market Hours – Please set your own broker time

DDFX Template

This version 4.0 only suggests you to trade in the higher Time Frame like 1hour. The lowest suggested time frame is 30 minutes. This is because we want to avoid a lot of whipsaw in the FX market.

The function of all indicators:

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1. DDFX 1 clock v4 | - showing candle/bar time |
| 2. DDFX 2 Neuro Trade v4 | - detect Bull and Bear Market (market change) |
| 3. DDFX 3 BBStop v4 | - give Bull and Bear Signal |
| 4. DDFX 4 Major Trend v4 | - showing major trend market |
| 5. DDFX 5 Sentiment v4 | - showing market sentiment: Bullish or Bearish |
| 6. DDFX 6 Golden Line v4 | - Bull and Bear Line |

System Installation

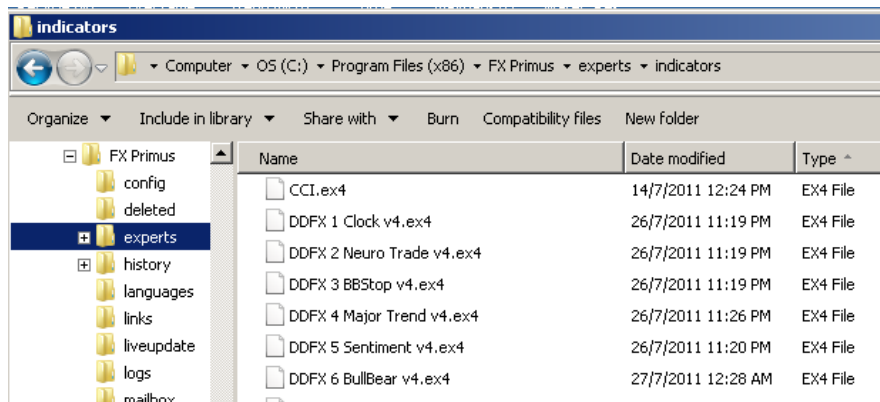

In-order to use DDFX, you must have a Metatrader 4 (MT4) software. Please go to MT4.com and download your demo copy if you need it or you can Google for it. I would not suggest any broker. You decided which broker best for you.

When you already install MT4 software into your drive. Please copy DDFX indicators and do the following...

To install the indicators just go to the installation folder; find your MT4 broker folder,
Example:

C:\Program Files\yourbrokername_MetaTrader 4\experts\indicators.

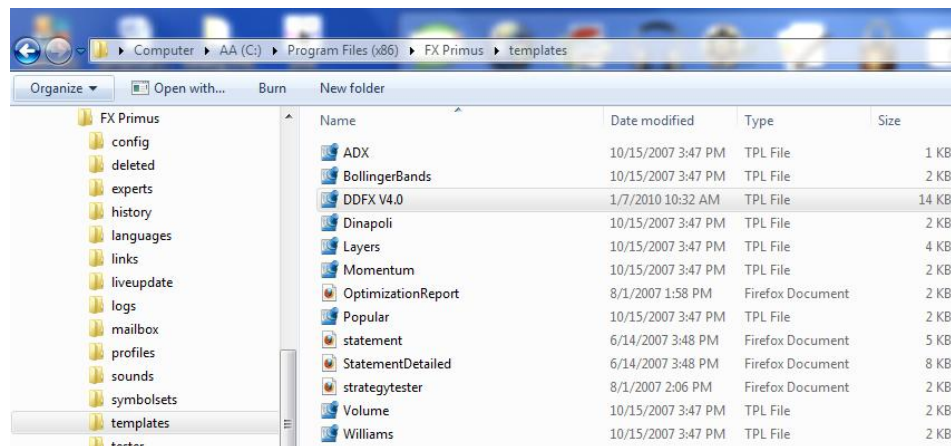

Copy and paste your indicators inside there. In this case we use FX Primus.

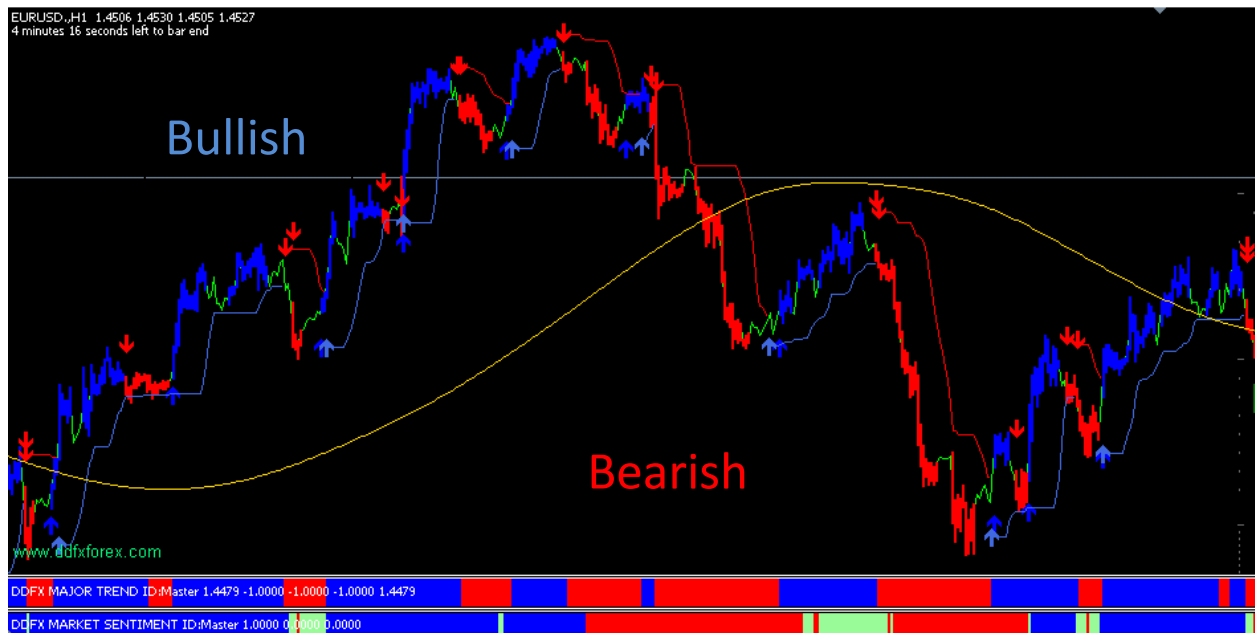

To install the templates, just go to the installation folder; find your MT4 broker folder,
Example:

C:\Program Files\yourbroker_MetaTrader 4\templates

Copy and paste your indicators inside there. In this case, we use FX Primus.

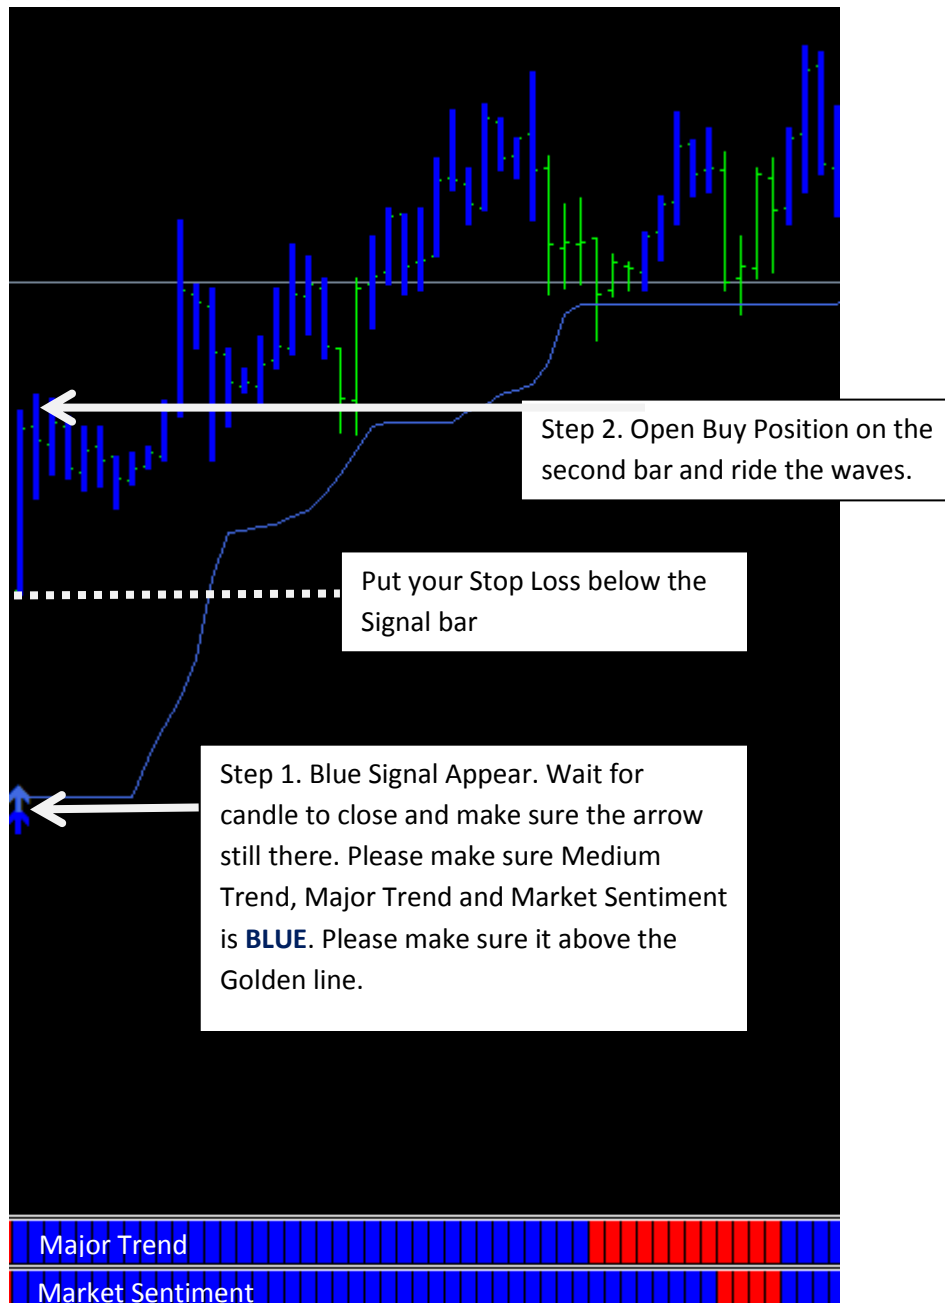

How to Read and Interpret DDFX Signal?

The first rule to use DDFX V4 is the DDFX Golden Line. Above Golden line only look for Bull (Buy) trade and below Golden line only look for Bear (Sell) trade.

For full screen viewing (inside MT4) press F11, to back to normal screen press F11 again.

Buy/Long Signal

Calculate the Signal Bar/candle total pips movement. Let say 20 pips, your Take profit should be 20pips (1:1) or 40 pips (1:2) or 60 pips (1:3) or use Pivots Line or Fibonacci level as your profit strategy.

Bear Signal

Conclusion

We make it easy for your trading.

But Please do your home work before your enter your trading pit.

If you want to make money in Forex, learn the market movement. Become the master itself.

Before you start your daily session please, try to identified Support and Resistance, draw some Trend line, identify some Chart Pattern and do look for Round Numbers and also Divergences.

Failing to see all this may make your trading loss. The signal may alert you but you have to alert yourself about the market movement in that moment.

Try to avoid 'Trading near or on the News Time'. Trade on normal days.

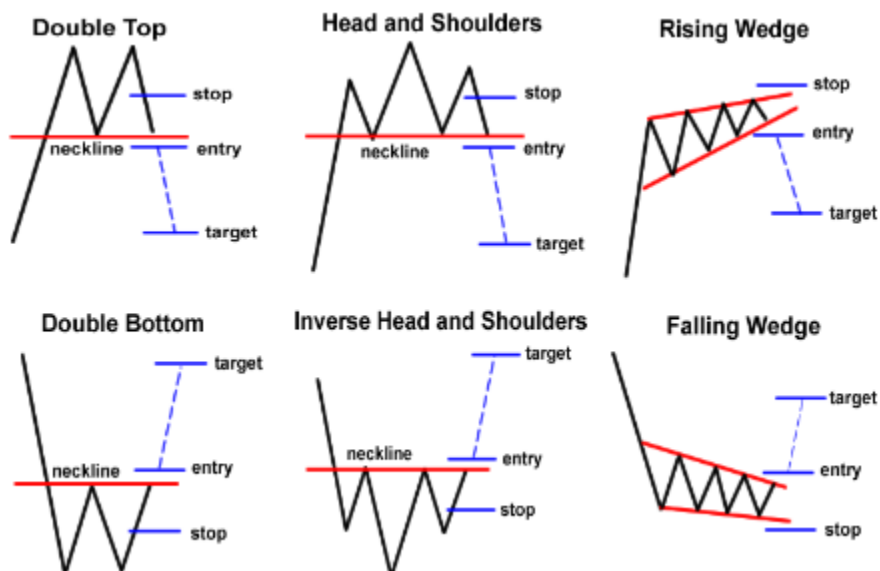

Take 2 to 3 months on Demo Account to make you familiar with DDFX.

You can set your own strategies using this method or combine with your own system. It will help you make a better decision.

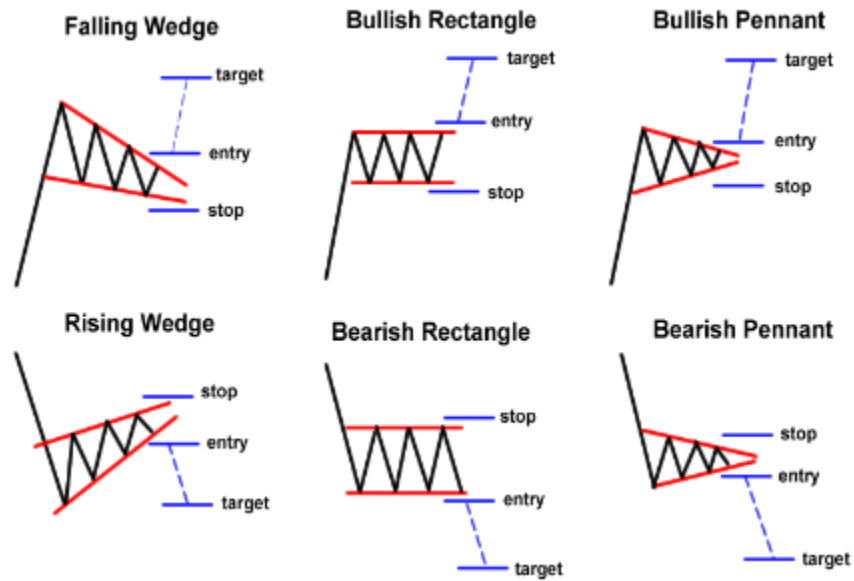

DDFX follow the KISS Formula – Keep It Simple Stupid!
