

Description of various situations

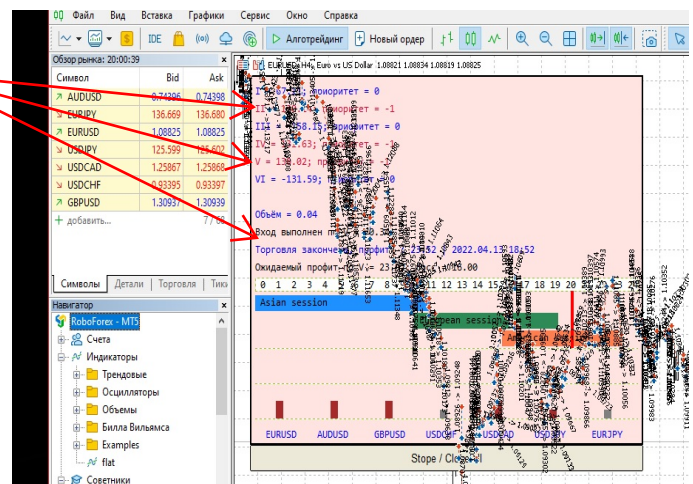

1. A profit was received on our transaction

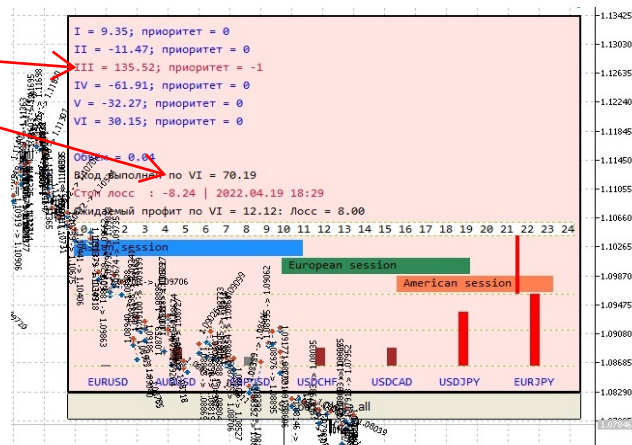

2. Received a stop on our transaction

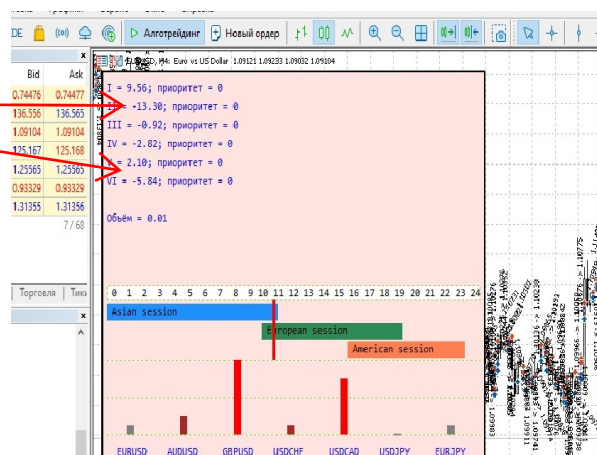

3. Profit on several transactions, including our

4. Our deal closed with a Stop.
Another deal in profit

5. If after restarting the robot, the recalculation immediately began.
In this case,
you need to restart the terminal and run the Robot again

These are the main situations that occur in trading.

There were no others noticed during the entire operation and testing of the robot