

This should be long enough to minimise the chance of being stopped out by a whipsaw, yet short enough to make profits on a trend.

Standard Deviations s 0 - 10 (default 1)

This should be large enough so trading signals are not generated during non-trending periods.

Intervals

Not suitable for tick data.